As the Mississippi River Iriprovement Convention will meet at Washington in a few days, let us all congratulate ourselves that our city will be misrepresented, and all through the efforts of Mr. D. P. Hadden. He has appointed his man, and while it may be glory enough for Mr. Hadden to antagonize not only the interest of Memphis, but of the entire Mississippi Valley, still it is the duty of our citizens to enter their protests, and let Mr. Hadden know that the citizens at large have some rights, even though he may have made a menopoly of them for interests and wants of our city, that there are others that are not? We have nothing to say for or against Mr. John Cowdon gate to a convention knowing that the delegate was opposed to anything that the convention might wish to accomplish.
